

How to Get Involved

Organize a Water for Peace Project

- Your group can partner with an Iraqi school to provide clean water and build relationships with Iraqis. Visit reconciliationproject.org/water-for-peace or contact luke@reconciliationproject.org for more information
- Request a copy of our guidebook (email luke@reconciliationproject.org) for step-by-step instructions to educating your community, inspiring important conversations, and raising money

Write Letters

- Send a letter (in English or Arabic) to luke@reconciliationproject.org and we will forward it on to Iraq
- Contact luke@reconciliationproject.org if you would like to set up a communication partnership involving email, video, photos, and sound between an American group and an Iraqi school

Host an Event or a Speaker

- Contact luke@reconciliationproject.org for information, ideas and support about hosting an event for the IARP
- Sample ideas:

House party	Film screening	Fundraising event
Iraqi art showing	Host a speaker	Iraqi cultural event

Host Visiting Delegations

- Sign up to be on a list of potential hosts for visiting delegations from Iraq. When delegations are planned we will email you with dates and ask for volunteers. To sign up, email luke@reconciliationproject.org or sign up through the "Email Updates" on our website.

Volunteer

- Visit reconciliationproject.org/volunteer and fill out the volunteer sheet

Spread the Word

- Friend us on Facebook (facebook.com/iarproject) or tell your friends about our work

Research and Write

- Research problems created by the Iraq War in America and Iraq and write a letter to the editor of your local paper educating your community about the need for reconciliation
- Contact us for assistance and let us know if you have written anything so that we can feature you on our blog

Donate

- Visit reconciliationproject.org/donate or contact us about making a donation

Have a New Idea?

- We are always looking for new ways people can get involved in reconciliation. If you have a new idea, please let us know so that we can help!