

Iraqi & American Reconciliation Project

in association with Muslim Peacemaker Teams

Ikhlas built strength with her new prostheses through physical therapy at Winkley and the Courage Center. Ikhlas was hosted by Al and Anne Nettles, Susan Scherber, and Anne Dykstra.

IARP and our partner the Muslim Peacemaker Teams have installed clean water systems at 46 schools in Iraq. Water quality continues to be a major problem in Iraq today.

Mustafa is in Minneapolis to receive medical treatment. He and his mom Shayma have been hosted by Chris and Jeannette Lutter-Gardella.

Zuhair Sharba, President of the Najaf Chamber of Commerce. Zuhair is hosted in Minneapolis by Steve and Christine Clemens.

Iraqi artist Fatin Al-Jumaily (right) and local artist Fawzia Khan. Fatin and Ghalib Al-Mansoori were hosted by Pat Owen, Joanna Lees, Sarah Martin, and Sue Johnston.

Through Letters for Peace, American and Iraqi students connect with each other in peace.

Executive Director Kathy McKay and Zuhair Sharba met with the Minnesota Trade Office and the US Dept of Commerce about expanding trade between Minnesota and Najaf, Iraq.

Muslim Peacemaker Teams Director Sami Rasouli with Mustafa in Iraq, before their trip to the US.

Molly Culligan hosted a house party on November 4 with Ikhlas and MPT Director Sami Rasouli. Mustafa (right) and his mom Shayma also attended.

The Iraqi Art Project brings art and culture from the cradle of civilization to the US.